

1) Minimum Age

“The Juvenile Jurisdiction Advisory Committee supports raising the minimum age of juvenile jurisdiction from 6 to 10 for all offenses, while continuing to provide services to these at-risk youth through school, primary care, local departments of social services, mental health, and local programming. The JJAC also supports capacity evaluations and hearings for youth alleged to have committed an offense while younger than age 12.”